

Student Demonstrator
International Ceramics Festival 2023
30th June - 2nd July 2023

We invite applications from any UK University or Higher Education Institute currently teaching ceramics to nominate up to two students to give a demonstration of a ceramic technique or process or create a performance piece. This will take place at a dedicated work space in a marquee on site during scheduled times over the weekend. Up to four places are offered and each student selected will get a free festival ticket, materials and a work space.

Please note that the college/university will have to arrange transport and accommodation for the student.

To be completed by Course Tutor and applicant. Please return by 5th May 2023.
